DREAM OF WELLS May 2026

May - 2026
Last night, early this morning, I found myself awakened, and I was caught up into the Spirit realm. It was as if I was resting on a level plain, and all I could see was America, at eye level and she was covered with wells and fire. I heard the Spirit of the Lord say: “The wells are opening, the fire is spreading, and the harvest is now."

He said, "The wells you see represent the inheritance of revival. They were dug through prayer, sacrifice, holiness, worship, evangelism, and obedience of My sons and daughters. Some were dug by revivalists whose names are recorded in heaven to be remembered. Others were dug by hidden saints known only to Me."

He said, "Just as Isaac reopened the wells of Abraham, I am calling My people to redig wells that have been covered by compromise, fear, greed, distraction, and unbelief. But this is not only about old wells; for there are new wells that will be dug by My Sons & daughters who stand for truth, righteousness and justice and the water that comes from these wells will be pure, like that of an Artesian well, that will spring up from the deep underground wells where this water only comes up from pressure and it’s a sweet water says the Lord.

God is raising up a generation that will dig where others refused to go, believe where others have doubted, and prepare places for His Spirit to move in a fresh way.

He went on to say, "The wells speak of preparation. The fire speaks of visitation. The glory speaks of manifestation. The harvest speaks of His purpose."

The fires scattered across this nation are prophetic markers. They represent places where I intend to move once again, as well as many new places where altars are being repaired, where prayer will arise, simultaneously, where the new wells are being dug up and where My presence will be welcomed," says the Lord.

I believe the Lord is creating a holy hunger in this generations. Many have discovered that religion without His presence is empty. Success without His presence is empty. Programs without His presence are empty.

But there is a generation that is becoming hungry for God. Where hunger increases, revival awakening follows.

The words on this graphic declare the progression of awakening:

A Generation Hungry.
A Nation On Fire.

A God Who Hears.

The cry of this hour is found in Numbers 21:17:
"Spring up, O well!"

This is the cry for My living water to flow again. This is the cry for revival fire to fall and to awaken My people. This is the cry for harvest to come like never before," says God.

We are entering a time where old wells will flow once again, new wells will emerge, and they will come together, and the fire of God will spread from city to city and region to region, state to state, from this nation to the nations of the world.

The Lord is calling for well diggers, fire carriers, those who will steward My glory, and are willing to become His harvest laborers.

The wells are opening.
Will you dig the wells?
The fire is spreading.
Will you carry the fire?
The glory is coming.
Will you steward My glory?
The harvest is waiting.
Will you bring in My harvest?

For even as you say yes, everything is already in motion," says the Lord. "But I'm looking for My sons and daughters who are willing to pay the price and continue to go forth regardless of what you may endure. For even as you say yes, step in for My Ruach breath is already blowing over this nation," says the Lord. "Obedience unlocks things, and obedience sets things in motion," says the Lord.

"My fire is burning across this nation for My burning ones, many of whom are not aware because they are the nameless, faceless, laid-down lovers who have simply called upon My name, and I have heard, and I have answered, and they have obeyed My voice says the Lord.

"Spring up, O well."
